

My ~~God~~ goal was to express my art abilities. The steps I took to ~~success~~ were to all ways practice so my art skills get better. Some times I kept failing and failing but it was ok because no ~~matter~~ matter how hard I tried I repeted and repeted. It felt so good to find out I had come this far. I might not be an artist but I love drawing. But during that the problems were the eyes and nose.

My goal was to go on the u shaped water slide in turkey. It was on top of a building. When I first tried it I was scared but I went on it again and again I covered my fears.

My other goal is to get better at maths and other subjects, some times it is challengeing but I still try my best and keep on going. And I never give up. I feel happy because I am getting close to the door of suesses.

My goal was to learn how to swim in deep water because at first I was scared because I thought I was going to drown especially swimming backwards, but as I started practicing how swim I got better and feeling confident about myself. Then I started going swimming lessons, and that's how I ~~started~~ to have achieved my goal to start feeling confident about swimming in ~~water~~ deep waters, and what was tricky about it was sometimes I drown but I don't give up.

My goal ^{is} ~~was~~ to become a successful engineer because I really love technology. What I need to succeed is advice, research and practice. What was difficult for me was that I had to use dangerous tools (which could injure me) and I can't mess up once otherwise ^{my} ~~your~~ project is ruined. My challenge was going to engineer school which had lots of adult stuff when I am just a kid. I felt so exhausted, but I kept on thinking of giving up but I still had belief until I finally made a project. It's not as easy as you think as well because there are many advantages to be a successful engineer. All you have to do is have belief.

My goal ~~wa~~ is to become Bigger faster and stronger ~~at what I can improve on~~ and to Develop my human body skills to be the best at what I should improve on. One example is Sports day, Every^{Year} ~~day~~ I try work harder to run faster and try be the best at it, Last year
I ~~had~~ came 2nd in the whole year! That's good but I Want better stats, I want to be come 1st Not 2nd or 3rd I want Number one to prove that I can run very fast. I try improve as much as I can to become top. I Want to become Superb at running, one day I might even ~~want to~~ become faster than usain bolt but I need to remember that I have to start at a very young age to be the best.
I also want to become a footballer. I train 3 days a week to improve on my football skills and try to become very good at it. My favourite players are mesut Ozil and Cristiano Ronaldo, Ronaldo worked hard as a little boy same with Ozil. And they are each very good and cristiano is the best footballer ever! that is my goal, to work hard to the door of success.

My goal was to do rock climbing and I was so scared because it was so high. ~~I~~ It took 3 months to do it, ~~it~~^{it} was hard to never give up because I felt to but I never because everything is possible and you will do it in the end. I did get laughed at but did I care no. It was difficult to keep grip and to balance but you would get the hang of it and eventually, get to your goal. The steps I had to do was to keep ~~your~~ grip, to balance and to be strong and brave. I had to be passion and to keep passion. I felt scared, excited, happy, sad and thankful. When I got there it ~~felt~~ felt amazing and wonderful to achieve your goal and it felt a relieve to get it done with. It also felt the best goal to achieve, ~~and~~ and I will carry on rock climbing.

When I was nine my brother ~~ask~~ challenged me to read a whole book series (Alex Rider). At first when I began reading I just didn't want to read it, so then ~~for~~ my mum encouraged me to read it by giving me £5 for every single book I read. I went back to reading it and suddenly I became in love with the series. Before I knew it I had finished the whole series (including the new ones) in just 3 months. And ~~there~~ in the series there are 12 books and they have over 400 pages for the last few books and ^{over} 200 pages for the first few books. I felt relieved when I had achieved this goal because my brother said I wouldn't achieve this goal.

My goal was to become a Prefix. I had to make an excellent Speech with big ideas. I had short time to do it because I forgot so I tried to add less adjectives. Then at school I added more details. I felt like I was 59% going to be Prefix and 41% Not. But then I had to speak to 200 people! I was really scared (and I don't think I could do it again). But I did it, and got chosen! I wasn't surprised but at the same time I was. Overall I am really happy that I got chosen!

My goal was to be not scared of heights and now am not. It was scary to ~~not be scared~~ go up a roof but I took step by step to not be scared. First I went to a building and next I ~~confident~~ push my self to go to the edge of the roof then I felt ~~calmer~~ ^{calmer} and came then I wasn't scared of heights anymore. The scary part was falling ^{off} getting pushed down. I felt proud and happy I ~~wasn't~~ was not scared of heights anymore and I could now go on scary rides ~~and even on a roof~~

My goal is to be good at goalie because I save so much save in a goalie and I tried to stay in goal and Me and Infan are the best also goal keeper. I wanted me and Infan to stay in goal but only one person can go on goal and we had to separate teams. It was good but I like to be on the way as and do warm up. Me and Infan felt very Exited ~~becase~~ because were the best goal keeper and we save so much shots and they never scored once a yr time and also a ~~penoty~~ penanty and played the football tournament.

My goal was to bake a cake.
The steps to succeed is that I had to follow the steps and listen to my parents to make a cake. The challenge that I faced were that I was making mess and that I had to ~~clean~~ clean it multiple times. The way I over-comeed it was to watch what I was doing. At the begininning I felt that I could not do it but when I did it (finished it) I felt proud and succsesful.

My goal was to create a cartoon character and animate it. I drew so many characters and watched some cartoons to get an idea. What I did was I wanted it to be an animal so I thought of a lizard then the personality and finally out it. It was hard because I got it wrong so many times and almost quit but then I motivated myself to keep going. I felt frustrated sometimes but still kept going and finally I made it.

My goal was to win a football tournament.
I practiced everyday and trained myself to learn new skills. I faced injuries, other people and lots of pressure. I felt nervous, frustrated, determined and annoyed. When I reached my goal I was excited, happy, energized and silly. Even though I faced challenges to reach my goal but I tried my hardest and had fun. ~~The most~~ one of the exciting things was, I achieved my goal with my friends and I scored.

My goal was to overcome my fear of heights. First, I went on the less scarier rides to become less scared. I overthought if I wanted to do it but I didn't want to stop and ^{I wanted to} keep going. It felt ~~wired~~ weird because I wanted to feel the adrenaline. The more brave I was the more higher rollercoasters I rode. My family encouraged me to feel brave and I was really happy. We had the last ten minutes to spend and I wanted to go on a super fast and high rollercoaster. Once the ride was over, I wanted to go again. The success was that I tried it and never gave up. My disadvantages was that my feelings told me to stop but I didn't.

My goal was to survive through primary school, because I used to get bullied a lot, and I used to lie, but over 6 years I have got better at not lying, ~~an~~. I felt, scared, depressed and frightened.

I also always wanted to be head girl, ever since I was in RECEPTION, so I kept working hard & it was tiring but worth it, and I became a prefect. To be honest I don't really care about what people think of me, ~~I~~ as long as I believe in myself.

My goal is more ~~an~~ important to ME than anyone else's because I believe in myself and I'm willing to take on any challenges coming my way.

My goal is to be a professional footballer.
The reason is because I have always loved the idea of kicking a football since I was 3 or 2 years old. I've been to many training teams
~~for~~ for years and I think I have improved
a lot since I started. I go to the park with my brother and we have a lot of fun playing football. I don't just like football,
I like many other sports such as running, hockey and tennis. My favorite team is Liverpool and my top 3 favorite players are: 3. Mo Salah
2. Marcus Rashford 1. Cristiano Ronaldo.

My goal was to make my basketball team. I had to practice and work hard. The challenges that I faced are learning how to dribble and shoot. When I was learning I felt like giving up until I thought to myself * I went through a lot so I should keep on going. I wanted to first join a basketball team ~~because~~ because my dad is a professional player.

For me, I still have not fully accomplished my goal yet but I am deftently working on it. Since I was small I had a phobia of bees, I honestly don't know why but my phobia got worst the day two of them stung me - in the same place, same second - I'll never, ever forget that day no matter what even if it was seven years from now. I'll never forget that day because it was one of the most horrifying days of my life! To be honest, I am still majorly terrified of bees but not as much as before, but the funny thing is that I hate bees and I love honey.
