

Write a review for the film you just watched.

Key Points to cover:

Did you enjoy it? What was it about?

Would you suggest this film to a friend?

Rate the film out of five.

Film Title: _____

Film Rating: _____

Sound in films is very important as it lets you understand what is happening on the screen. They do this through sound effects and music.

Can you describe the sounds in the film you just watched?

What was the music like in the film?

Do you know what genre the music was?

Did they use lots of sound effects?

A sound effect is an added sound such as a dinosaur roar in Jurassic Park.

Can you list any of the sound effects?

Every film has a wide selection of different characters.

Who was your favourite character in the film you just watched?

Write a fact file on that character.

Drawing of the character

Who was this character?

What is a famous quote that they say?

Why are they your favourite?

Name:

Home Learning - Film Activity Pack

Can you design a film poster for the film you just watched? Remember to include the film title, it's main characters and a hint at the plot.

Home Learning - Film Activity Pack

Using a device that lets you record video, can you recreate a scene from the film?
Creating a story board will help you plan out the scene. Create costumes and props to help you when you film it.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

A large rectangular area with horizontal lines for writing, intended for students to record their film activity.