

ROSA PARKS

MISSING WORD COMPREHENSION

beliefs	laws	segregation	America
arrested	black	rules	white
racism	buses	boycott	1950s

Rosa Parks was a _____ woman from Alabama in _____.

She stood up for her _____ and helped begin better treatment for black people.

In the _____ there was a lot of _____ in Alabama which meant there were _____ to keep black and white people apart. This was called _____.

It meant that black and white people had to sit separately on _____. A black person had to give up their seat for a _____ person if the bus was full.

Rosa refused to give up her seat and she was _____ and put in jail. This led to a bus _____ where black people didn't use the bus for a year.

The _____ were changed to say that separate parts of buses were no longer allowed.

ROSA PARKS

MISSING WORD COMPREHENSION

Rosa Parks was a _____ woman from Alabama in _____.

She stood up for her _____ and helped begin better treatment for black people.

In the _____ there was a lot of _____ in Alabama which meant there were _____ to keep black and white people apart. This was called _____.

It meant that black and white people had to sit separately on _____. A black person had to give up their seat for a _____ person if the bus was full.

Rosa refused to give up her seat and she was _____ and put in jail. This led to a bus _____ where black people didn't use the bus for a year.

The _____ were changed to say that separate parts of buses were no longer allowed.

